Company Name : O2 Holdings Limited

Company Sector : Telecommunications

Operating Geography : The UK, Europe

About the Company : O2 is Telefónica UK Limited's commercial brand and a British telecommunications services company based in Slough, England. Cellnet (O2) was established on January 7, 1985, as a 60:40 joint venture between BT Group and Securicor. Telefónica, a Spanish telecoms corporation, purchased O2 plc in 2006 and on June 1, 2021, O2 and Virgin Media legally combined to establish Virgin Media O2, a joint venture between Telefonica and Liberty Global. The corporation has 48 million internet, mobile, TV, and home phone connections in the United Kingdom. Its fixed network currently serves 15.6 million premises, as well as a mobile network that provides 4G service to 99 per cent of the country's population and 5G service to more than 300 towns and cities. The company helps the government as well as small and large businesses. This comprises a wide range of managed connectivity services and flexible working capabilities, as well as security, data insight, 5G private networks, cloud solutions, and wholesale services to other operators and partners. Virgin Media O2 announced on February 2022 that it expanded its ultrafast gigabit network to tens of thousands of Cricklewood residences.

The USP of O2 Holdings Limited lies in its being the premier digital communications firm with the highest customer satisfaction of any mobile carrier. The mission statement of O2 Holdings Limited reads, "At O2 it's our responsibility to be there for our customers, providing fantastic connectivity and the best value while maintaining the industry's leading customer service. We're all about providing technology that creates new, exciting and personal experiences for more than 35 million people".
