Company Name : Willis Towers Watson

Company Sector : Risk management, Insurance Brokerage and Advisory

Operating Geography : United Kingdom, Europe, Global

About the Company :

Willis Towers Watson Public Limited Corporation is multinational risk management, insurance brokerage, and consultancy company headquartered in London, United Kingdom. The company dates back to 1828. In 2009, Towers Watson was founded by combining the deals of Towers Perrin and Watson Wyatt. Human Capital and Benefits (HCB), Corporate Risk and Broking (CRB), Investment, Risk and Reinsurance (IRR), and Benefits Delivery and Administration (BDA) are the segments through which the company operates. Employee benefit plans, human resources companies, and management teams can get advice, broking, solutions, and software from the HCB category. Clients ranging from small companies to corporations are served by the CRB division, which provides risk advising, insurance broking, and consultancy services. The IRR division focuses on assisting clients with capital release and investment complexity management. The BDA sector provides current employees and retirees in both the group and individual markets with medical and ancillary benefit exchange and outsourcing services. Following the events in Eastern Europe, WTW declared in April 2022 at the publication of its annual Energy Market Review that the need to manage energy transition risk is being expedited by the demand to find alternative energy sources to oil and gas.

Willis Towers Watson's USP lies in its being the world's third-largest insurance broker, with operations in over 140 countries and a workforce of over 45,000 employees. The mission statement of Willis Towers Watson reads, "We design and deliver solutions that manage risk, optimize benefits, cultivate talent, and expand the power of capital to protect and strengthen institutions and individuals".
