Company Name : Chanel

Company Sector : Fashion & Lifestyle

Operating Geography : United Kingdom, Europe, Global

About the Company :

Chanel is a high-end fashion house founded by Gabrielle Chanel at the turn of the century in 1910 with its headquarters in London, United Kingdom. Its products include Ready-to-Wear, Leather Goods, Fashion Accessories, Eyewear, Fragrances, Makeup, Skincare, Jewelry, and Watches. CHANEL is also noted for its Haute Couture collections, which are showcased twice a year in Paris, and for having amassed a huge number of specialist suppliers known as the Métiers d'Art. There are more than 120 boutiques in the company's global network. Chanel also owns lingerie and swimwear company Eres and runs seven ateliers through Paraffection, which is controlled by chairman Alain Wertheimer's family. Among the brand's most well-known goods are the Chanel Suit, Chanel No. 5 perfume, and the "little black dress." After the United States, China is Chanel's second-largest beauty market. One-third of Chanel's sales come from the United States, China, and France. The company's items are available through its shops as well as other retailers. CHANEL's Métiers de la Mode signed the "1 jeune, 1 solution" (1 young person, 1 solution) collaboration agreement on January 25th 2022, to support, train, and facilitate the entry into the professional lives of young people under 30 across the country.

Chanel's USP lies in its being one of the first to introduce prêt-a-porter ready-to-wear clothing and is now a global leader in the luxury clothing area enjoying strong brand equity and customer loyalty. The mission statement of Chanel reads, "To be the Ultimate House of Luxury, defining style and creating desire, now and forever."
