Company Name : Carvana

Company Sector : Automotive Retail, E-commerce

Operating Geography : United States, North America, Global

About the Company :

Ryan Keeton, and Ben Huston launched this business. Headquartered in Tempe, Arizona, is a holding business and an eCommerce platform that specialises in the purchase of used cars as well as the supply of a variety of convenient car purchasing options. It is divided into three sections: Vehicle Sales; Wholesale Vehicle Sales; and Other Sales and Revenue. Consumers can use the Company's platform to research and locate a vehicle, inspect it using 360-degree vehicle image technology, apply for finance and warranty coverage, buy the vehicle, and schedule delivery or pick-up, all from their desktop or mobile devices. Customers can get financing, finalise a purchase, and schedule delivery or pick-up online using the Company's transaction tools and web platform. In some marketplaces, consumers can also get their automobiles from a vending machine. Over 266 metropolitan markets are served by the company's in-house distribution network as of early 2023. Carvana has also been listed in Forbes' 2022 Top 10 Best Large Employers list.

Carvana's USP lies in it being the fastest growing online used automobile dealer in the United States and it was recently added to the Fortune 500 List for 2021, making it one of the list's newest members. The mission statement of Carvana reads, "Our mission is founded in helping our clients improve the care that is delivered to patients by paving the way to value-based care models".
