Company Name : Novavax Inc.

Company Sector : Pharmaceutical, Healthcare

Operating Geography : United States, North America, Global

About the Company :

Novavax Inc., is an American biotechnology company headquartered in Gaithersburg, Maryland. Novavax Inc., was initially founded to focus on the development of experimental vaccines and was established in 1987. It promotes improved health globally by discovering and developing innovative vaccines. The company develops and commercializes vaccines which help in preventing serious infectious diseases. Prior to 2020, the company's scientists developed vaccines for diseases such as Ebola, Respiratory Syncytial Virus (RSV), and influenza and later it refocused its efforts and concentrated on developing COVID-19 vaccines in 2020. The firm has thus taken steps for ensuring the continued advancement of its influenza vaccine. It has been honoured with fast-track status in January 2020, by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for NanoFlu. In January 2021, the company announced the results of phase 3 trials that showed 89 percent efficacy against Covid-19. The vaccine also provides high immunity against novel variations, according to the report. Novavax, Inc. announced in April 2022 that the Australian Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA) had granted provisional registration of the Nuvaxovid™ (NVX-CoV2373) COVID-19 vaccine as a booster in people aged 18 and up.

Novavax Inc.'s Unique Selling Point or USP lies in it being one of the most advanced vaccine development businesses in the world. Recombinant Nanoparticle Vaccine Technology and Matrix-M adjuvant Technology are two of the company's exclusive innovations. Novavax's vision statement reads, "Our vision is a resilient Joint Force enabled to fight and win, unencumbered by a chemical, biological, radiological, or nuclear environment".
