Company Name : Silgan Holdings Inc.

Company Sector : Consumer Goods Packaging

Operating Geography : United States, North America, Global

About the Company :

Silgan Holdings is an American consumer goods packaging manufacturer situated in Connecticut. It is headquartered in Stamford, Connecticut, and has factories throughout North America and Europe. Phil Silver and Greg Horrigan, two former Continental Can executives, established the business in 1987. Dispensing and specialty closures, metal containers, and custom containers are the company's three segments. Its dispensing and specialty closures division creates and sells dispensing systems and specialty closures for goods in the food, beverage, health care, garden, home, personal care, fragrance, and beauty industries. Steel and aluminum containers for human and pet food, as well as general line products, are manufactured and sold by the company's metal containers business. Custom containers are made and sold for personal care, food, health care, pharmaceutical, domestic and industrial chemical, pet food and care, agricultural, automotive, and marine chemical products. It operates in North and South America, Europe, and Asia through its dispensing and specialized closures division. The company's metal container segment is primarily focused on North America and Europe. As of 2022, the company leverages the talent of 15,600 employees.

Silgan's USP is positioned as a leading global sustainable packaging provider for consumer goods items for many of the world's most well-known brands. The mission statement of the company reads, "Being the Best; at what we do and making the best metal food packaging in the industry."
