About the Company :

BayWa AG, headquartered in Munich, is a globally engaged company. Founded to aid local agriculture, the company has since expanded into the construction and energy sectors. Through its subsidiaries and holdings, BayWa is present in over 50 countries. The business offers industrial and agricultural items wholesale and retail, as well as providing related services. Agriculture, Building Materials, Energy, and several other activities, are the primary segments of the company's operations. Grain and fruits, crop protection products, fertilisers, feedstuffs, and seeds, as well as agricultural equipment including tractors, forestry machinery, and spare parts, are all supplied in the agriculture category. The Building Materials sector sells building materials and components, along with operating garden centres and pet sections and offering regional heating and sanitary installation services. Mineral oils, biodiesel, and lubricants are available via the Energy division, which manages a network of roughly 280 fuel stations in Germany. Apollo Apples Ltd is one of its subsidiaries. In May 2022, BayWa stated that one of its subsidiaries, Cefetra Group, has acquired Heinrich Brüning GmbH, a company that specialises in nuts and dried fruits. The company has over 21,000 employees as of early 2022.

BayWa Group's USP is that it is one of the greatest European firms in terms of revenues, and as a worldwide player, it produces leading projects and solutions for the essential human requirements of food, energy, and construction. The mission statement of BayWa reads, "Sustainable partner for universal basic human needs".
