Company Name : MakeMyTrip

Company Sector : Travel

Operating Geography : India, Asia, Global

About the Company :

MakeMyTrip Ltd offers online booking services for regular travel requirements. The company's headquarters are located in Gurugram, Haryana. In 2000, IIM-Ahmedabad alumnus Deep Kalra created the business to meet the demands of the community of Indians living abroad who travel between the US and India. Through its online brands, which include MakeMyTrip.com, goibio.com, Quest2Travel, and redbus.in, the company does business. Through these platforms, the company provides air tickets, hotels and packages, bus tickets, and others. The category that brings in the most revenue is hotels and package tours. The hotels and packages industry offers travel packages and hotel reservations through web-based platforms, contact centres, and branch offices. Its air ticketing division offers the ability to book both domestic and international flights through web-based platforms. Geographically, it is based primarily in India but also has operations in the US, South East Asia, Europe, and other nations. MakeMyTrip's fintech subsidiary TripMoney in April 2022 purchased a controlling share in BookMyForex, India's biggest online provider of foreign exchange services, as part of its effort to become a one-stop shop for all the FX needs of Indian travellers.

MakeMyTrip's USP stems from the fact that it is the leading tour agency in India as well as one of the most well-known and reputable Indian travel companies. The mission statement of the company reads, "to provide customers a one-stop shop for all their travel needs".
