Company Name : TSB Bank plc

Company Sector : Banking & Finance

Operating Geography : United Kingdom, Europe, Global

About the Company :

A unit of the Sabadell Group, TSB Bank plc is a retail and business bank in the UK. It has more than 5.0 million customers and its headquarters are in Edinburgh. Beginning in the first decade of the nineteenth century, the corporation has provided financial services. Up until the 1980s, the history of what is now known as the TSB was the history of individual TSBs, local, autonomous trustee savings banks established by people of a community to serve that community. The transformation of TSBs from a collection of independent banks into a corporate entity reached its apex in 1986. The business utilises a contemporary banking infrastructure and offers customer service through digital channels, over the phone, and in-branch locations throughout the UK. The Bank provides services for credit cards, mortgages, loans, current accounts, and insurance. Early in 2022, TSB announced that it has teamed up with Farewill to provide consumers with easy and reasonably priced wills and probate services.

The company's USP is that it is the sixth-largest bank in the UK, servicing about 7.5 million clients, and is a prominent and quite well member of Britain's financial community. The mission of TSB Bank is “to help our customers make the most of their money, so that they can feel money confident every day.”
