About the Company :

Essity AB, is a global hygiene and health corporation with its headquarters in Stockholm, Sweden. Essity used to be a component of the SCA, which was created in 1929 in Sweden. In 1975, the business acquired the Swedish company Mölnlycke, which gave it experience in hygiene. Its history may be traced back to 1849 through Mölnlycke. On June 15, 2017, Essity went public on Nasdaq Stockholm. Essity is made from the word "essentials" and "necessities". The company operates in three segments: personal care, consumer tissue, and professional hygiene. The personal care portfolio includes incontinence products, baby care, feminine care, and medical treatments. The consumer tissue offering includes toilet paper, handkerchiefs, facial tissues, wet wipes, and napkins. The professional hygiene product line includes toilet paper, paper hand towels, napkins, hand soap, and dispensers. As of early 2023, the company leverages the talent of 46,000 employees.

Essity's USP is that it is a leading global hygiene and health firm with sales in more than 150 countries and the number one or second position in at least one product category in more than 90 countries. The mission statement of the company reads, "To sustainably develop, produce, market and sell value-added hygiene and health products and services".
