Company Name : Ryanair

Company Sector : Aviation

Operating Geography : United Kingdom, Europe, Global

About the Company :

Ryanair is an Irish airline established in 1984 and is headquartered in Dublin, Ireland. It is the largest European carrier in terms of passenger volume and is largely characterized by the successful implementation of the low-cost business model. Being a pioneer in offering low fares to its passengers on short European routes, Ryanair has earned the reputation to offer lowest fares in the industry and hence turns out to be the toughest competition to the newbies in the aviation industry. During the 90's Ryanair operated as an airline serving short point to point European routes. Later it entered the Dublin-London route hitting the market with its attractive strategy of lowest fares and increased routes between Ireland and UK. Gradually Ryanair started new routes in various other countries, keeping its business model simple and focused towards providing lowest possible fares with increased frequencies to destinations and emphasizing on safety and security of passengers. Ryanair has over 19,000 employees on its rolls as of early 2023.

Ryanair's unique selling proposition or USP is to provide lowest fares in the airline industry with increased frequencies for short point to point routes. Ryanair's mission statement reads as "to offer low fares that generate increased passenger traffic while maintaining a continuous focus on cost containment and efficiency operation." Ryanair's Vision is "to firmly establish itself as Europe's leading low-fares scheduled passenger airline through continuous improvements and expanded offerings of its low-fares service".
