Operating Geography : United States, North America, Global

About the Company :

Toys "R" Us is an American Toy company based in Wayne, New Jersey. It was founded in the year 1948 by Charles P. Lazarus. It initially started with the name of Children's Supermart with a focus on baby furniture. But as requests for toys for toddlers and older children began to grow, the brand shifted its outlook to producing more toys and renamed the brand to Toys R Us in 1957. The company mascot Geoffrey the Giraffe was also launched in 1957 which became an important "spokes animal" for the firm, helping in promotions. The first international store was opened in 1984. It currently offers a wide range of toys and baby products and besides 750 international stores and 250 licensed ones, the Company also retails them their online websites Toysrus.com and Babiesrus.com. The company was closed in 2018 after it filed for bankruptcy. It is gradually reopening its stores in 2021. WHP Global announced in August 2021 that Toys "R" Us would open over 400 stores within Macy's beginning in 2022.

The mission statement of Toys "R" Us reads, "Through strategic partnerships and programs focused on keeping children safe and helping them in times of need, the company is dedicated to serving communities around the world as a caring and reputable neighbor".
