Company Name : USAA

Company Sector : Banking and Financial Services

Operating Geography : USA, North America, Global

About the Company :

United Services Automobile Association, known as USAA, is a diversified financial firm dealing in banking, investing, and insurance particularly for those people and their families who are currently a part of the United States Military and for those who have served in the past. It is a mutual company. The company headquarters are located in San Antonio, Texas. It is the country's fourth largest home insurance company and fifth largest auto insurance company. It has offices located in 21 places across the country. On the global platform, it has offices located in London, UK and Frankfurt, Germany.

The company operates through its subsidiaries, the USAA Life Insurance Company, the USAA Investment Management Company and the USAA Federal Savings Bank. USAA was founded in 1922 by a group of 25 military officials for getting mutual self-insurance as they were unable to buy insurance because of the nature of their job. Insurance companies rated them as a very high-risk group. The company operates primarily through direct marketing; contacting customers via the internet or through phone calls. The company currently has around 13 million members and employs approximately 35000 employees as per early 2022 records.

The company is known for their everlasting commitment to their customers and is always recognized for their outstanding services, financial strength and employee care. This is reflected through the mission statement of the company which reads, "To facilitate the financial security of its members, associates and their families by providing a full range of highly competitive financial products and services."
