About the Company : CD Projekt is a polish video game designer, publisher, and distributor headquartered in Warsaw, Poland. In May 1994 Marcin Iwiński and Michał Kiciński formed the CD Projekt. The company conducts its business in the field of electronic entertainment focusing on two key areas: 1. Development and distribution of world-class videogames via the CD PROJEKT RED development studio which was formed in 2002, creators of the globally acclaimed The Witcher videogame series, currently also working on other projects, including the upcoming AAA release: Cyberpunk 2077; 2. digital sales of vidgames directly to customers from around the world via GOG.com and GOG Galaxy platforms. The Studio's newest release includes The Witcher 3: Wild Hunt for the PC, PlayStation 4 and Xbox One, and the game was released simultaneously in 15 language versions, on all key markets, which involves Europe, the Americas, Asia, Australia and Africa. Along with the globally available digital edition of the game, box editions were made available in 109 countries. In 2021, the company plans to release another of its AAA RPG title, to expand its core franchises with additional media content and product lines, the rollout of additional language localizations of the GOG.com platform. The premiere of a new game CYBERPUNK EDGARRUNNERS is scheduled to be rolled out in 2022. In "Gamescom Awards 2020", CYBERPUNK 2077 clinched the 'Best of Show' award.

CD Projekt's Unique Selling Proposition or USP lies in it being the industry's leader in creating role-playing games. CD Projekt's mission statement reads, "To create revolutionary RPGs which go straight to the heart of gamers from around the world".
