Company Name : LHC Group

Company Sector : Health Care, Health Care Services

Operating Geography : United States, North America, Global

About the Company : LHC Group provides post-acute health care services to patients through its home nursing agencies, hospices and long-term acute care hospitals (LTACHs). The company is headquartered in Lafayette, Louisiana. In 1994, the organisation began as a single home health provider in small-town America, with a mission to support the community's most needy and disadvantaged members. The industry segments in which the organisation operates are Home Health Services, Hospice Services, Home & Community-Based Services, Facility-Based Services, and Healthcare Innovations. The Home Health portion of the website offers professional nursing, private duty nursing, physical, occupational, and speech therapy, medically-oriented social services, and hospice care. Pain and symptom treatment, emotional and spiritual assistance, inpatient and respite care, homemaker services, and therapy are all part of the Hospice Services section. Home and community-based services are provided by paraprofessionals and provide help with activities of daily life for the elderly, chronically ill, and disabled patients. In May, 2021, LHC Group, Inc. reported that it has reached an agreement to buy two Casa de la Luz provider locations in Tucson, Arizona.

LHC Group's Unique Selling Point or USP lies in it being a leading national provider of in-home healthcare services, with 30,000 staff serving 60 per cent of the US population aged 65 and up across 35 states and the District of Columbia. LHC Group's mission statement reads, "We provide exceptional care and unparalleled service to patients and families who have placed their trust in us".
