Company Name : Braun GmbH

Company Sector : Home Appliances

Operating Geography : Germany, Europe, Global

About the Company : Braun GmbH is a consumer goods firm headquartered in Kronberg am Taunus, Germany. The company is well renowned for its mid-century industrial product design, which includes electric shavers and record players. In 1921, a mechanical engineer named Max Braun established an engineering firm in Frankfurt, Germany in which he began producing components of radio sets. Food processors, radios, slide projectors, Super 8 film cameras and accessories, and high-fidelity sound systems were among the company's previous products. Braun is currently concentrating on its main categories (shaving and grooming, beauty and hair care). In addition to electric water kettles, coffee makers, juicers, irons, hairdryers, stylers and curlers, infrared ear thermometers, blood pressure monitors, clocks, and calculators, they also make infrared ear thermometers, blood pressure monitors, clocks, and calculators. Braun has around 200 goods in its product line, which are made in ten factories in Germany, Ireland, France, Spain, China, Mexico, and the United States. The Boston-based Gillette Group, which has owned Braun since 1967, distributes its goods all over the world. In 2021, Braun celebrates its 100th anniversary.

Braun GmbH's Unique Selling Point or USP lies in it being one of the world's leading manufacturers of small electric appliances. Braun 's mission statement reads, "Our objective is to develop products responding to the consumer's needs which are always a step ahead of the competition in technology and design".
