Company Name : AerCap Holdings N.V

Company Sector : Aircraft Leasing

Operating Geography : Ireland, Europe, Global

About the Company : AerCap is a leasing company for aircraft. It provides robust fleet services to over 200 customers in over 80 countries. AerCap is headquartered in Dublin and has branches in Shannon, Los Angeles, Singapore, Amsterdam, Shanghai, and Abu Dhabi, as well as being listed on the New York Stock Exchange (AER). It also has offices in Seattle and Toulouse, representing the world's two largest aircraft manufacturers, Boeing and Airbus. The company is into aircraft leasing and aviation finance with a legacy spanning more than 40 years, from the two founders of aircraft leasing: Guinness Peat Aviation (GPA) established in 1975 and International Lease Finance Corporation (ILFC) established in 1973. AerCap provides new and used commercial aircraft on operating contract, as well as sale and leaseback transactions, from its current fleet and order book of Boeing, Airbus, and Embraer aircraft. Operating leases offer several advantages to airline customers. All asset services needed to manage an aircraft portfolio are provided by AerCap to aircraft owners, financiers, and investors. The company handles the entire operation, from evaluating marketing opportunities to negotiating lease documentation, preparing the aircraft for delivery, and handling the lease over the contract duration. In March 2021, AerCap announced that it had reached an agreement with GE to buy GE Capital Aviation Services (GECAS) for US$24 billion in cash and 46 per cent of the combined company in stock.

AerCap's Unique Selling Point or USP lies in it being the largest owner of commercial aircraft in the world and the most active aircraft trader. The mission statement of AerCap reads, "AerCap's mission includes promotion of professional conduct in the practice of financial management worldwide".
